The Celtic Festival of Imbolc

Imbolc marks the midway point between Winter Solstice and Spring Equinox, and it is the Celtic festival that celebrates the Goddess Brigit and the promise of Spring.

The Celtic legend is that on the Eve of Imbolc, the Goddess of Winter, the Cailleach, journeys to a magical isle to visit the sacred well. At the first glimmer of dawn, she drinks the water that bubbles from a crevice in a rock, and is transformed into the fair Goddess Brigit, who turns the bare earth green again.

This transformation is beginning to happen within each of us, as we experience the shift from an inner contemplative focus to an outer focus of conscious manifestation. The flame of inspiration burns bright and the quiet power within us is quickening.

Please join me and my co-host Elizabeth Pendleton, for a special teleconference class on Imbolc, Monday, February 1st

5-6pm PST, 6-7pm MST, 7-8pm CST, 8-9pm EST
